ED PRYTS, Sr. V.P. of North America Sales

Cybox International
10 Trotter Drive
Medway, Massachusetts 02053 USA

Ed Pryts currently serves as Sr. Vice President of North America Sales for Cybox International. A graduate of Penn State University in 1982, Ed played linebacker for Penn State from 1978-1982. In 1982, Ed pursued a professional football career and signed with the Houston Oilers. After suffering a knee injury Ed started a Business career.

In 1984 Ed founded Pyramid Fitness Industries. Ed and his partner developed a full line of Selectorized machines, free weights and plate loaded equipment and marketed it worldwide. In 1993 Ed and his partner sold Pyramid to Trotter, who was a leading manufacturer in Treadmills. Trotter was the first major manufacturer to begin consolidating product lines to offer customers a full line of world class products. Ed stayed on with Trotter and started their National Account division which also included Government sales.

In 1997 Trotter purchased the leading name in strength equipment CYBEX (a public company) and changed the corporate name to Cybox International. In 1999 Trotter, now CYBEX, purchased Tectrix, a leading manufacturer in Upright Bikes, Recumbent Bikes and Steppers. Ed continued to develop the National Account program for Cybox.

In 2000, the Chairman of the Board for CYBEX, John Aglialoro, took over as President and CEO of CYBEX and Ed was promoted to Vice President of Direct Sales for North America. In 2002, Ed took the reins as Vice President for all of North America Sales, which includes, dealer sales, direct sales, as well as, national account sales. Ed's current title is Sr. Vice President of North America Sales including Canada and Mexico. Ed's mission is to work with CYBEX's engineering department to continue to develop world class products, promote Cybox Capital Corp. to offer customers an alternative funding source and to develop a world class sales team and distribution network.

Ed resides in Hermitage, PA, just north of Pittsburgh, where he is married and has three boys.
